The Fool

You are right on the edge of something new. Something has been calling to you from inside your heart and you are ready to answer it. It might be that you've just discovered you are part of the LGBTQIA+ rainbow. You may have decided to make the first steps of transitioning. You and your partner could be thinking about adding to your family via adoption. In any case, you are making the conscious decision to live your truth. That is a beautiful and empowering thing.

That doesn't mean it won't be scary. The Fool card is all about taking leaps of faith. It's hard to see what is waiting at the end of the road when you are just starting on your journey. But it will be so much harder for you in the long run if you turn your back on what your heart has been telling you all along. Take a deep breath. Then, take that first step. You can do this.
